

168th Session of the Council

Item 18: Progress Report on Multilingualism

The Secretariat takes note of the positive comments of the Members and their encouragement to ensure progress toward greater enhancement of multilingualism at FAO.

The Secretariat reiterates that “the adoption of the strategic policy framework for multilingualism by the end of 2022 will provide a more holistic and systematic blueprint to guide targeted efforts” (CL 168/18, para 12). The strategic policy framework will be presented for adoption by the Council at its 170th Session..
