Secretariat Response to sub-item 15.1: Evaluation of the International Year of Plant Health 2020

The Secretariat notes the inputs by Argentina, Australia, Colombia, the European Union and the United States of America. We acknowledge the comments made by Switzerland. The important contributions made by the individual countries and their respective national plant protection agencies, by contributing to the International Plant Protection Convention (IPPC) Multi-Donor Trust Fund contributions, was acknowledged during the 15th Commission on Phytosanitary Measures (CPM-15) in 2021, in both the IPPC Secretariat financial report for 2020 and under the item Update on International Year of Plant Health.
