Chile (Monday, 14 November 2022 – 17.16)	Chile respalda la propuesta de programa provisional. Señala que en la medida que avances las gestiones y si se renueva el mandato de la iniciativa granos del mar negro, se podría incluir en agenda.
Australia (Wednesday, 16 November 2022 – 14.13)	Australia notes the tentative agenda for the 172nd Session of the Council, and provides the following comments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In light of the unprecedented challenges currently impacting global food systems including, inter alia, the COVID-19 pandemic, climate change, rising cost of living, and conflicts, –Australia considers that there would be merit in expanding the scope of Agenda Item 5, Update on FAO’s Response to COVID-19: Building to transform, to provide a more inclusive update to Members on FAO’s integrated efforts to tackle the global food security crisis, beyond the immediate focus of the COVID-19 Response and Recovery Programme. • Australia continues to appreciate the regular updates provided to Members at Governing Body sessions on the Hand-in-Hand Initiative. We also note, however, the recent launch of other “flagship” FAO initiatives including, inter alia, One Country One Priority Product, FAO DataLab and 1000 Digital Villages. We consider that there could be value in expanding the focus of Agenda Item 6, Update on the Hand-in-Hand Initiative to incorporate updates on additional flagship initiatives, noting also the significant linkages and synergies between these.
Japan (Wednesday, 16 November 2022 – 16.09)	Though the tentative agenda for the 172nd Session of the Council doesn’t include any items on the update of the implementation of the FAO Strategy on Climate Change 2022-2031 and the FAO Science and Innovation Strategy, we recognize that they will be discussed in the 135th Session of the Programme Committee. We would like to know the schedule for developing each action plan, including the consultation process. Also, we recognize that the first stocktaking meeting on the UN Food Systems Summit will be convened in July 2023. We are looking forward to hearing the progress from FAO under Item 7, Report of the Joint Meeting of the 135th Session of the Programme Committee and 195th Session of the Finance Committee or any other item for information in the 172nd Session of the Council.
