

Intro course: RuralInvest - An introduction

This is an introduction to a series of three courses designed to assist field technicians in working with communities, groups or individuals wishing to prepare effective investment proposals. This introductory course provides an overview of the RuralInvest methodology and outlines its application within the RuralInvest e-learning series.

30 minutes

Available in English

You will learn about

- The background and purpose of RuralInvest.
- The RuralInvest methodology, its steps and linkages.
- Some basic concepts of the RuralInvest methodology.
- The RuralInvest e-learning roadmap.

Who is the course for?

People with the following profiles would benefit from taking this course:

- Field technicians and extension agents.
- Financial institution agents.
- International development staff.
- Members of universities and training centres.
- Business plan development consultants and financial specialists.

Key partners

This course was developed by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO).

FAO elearning Academy

This course is available through the FAO elearning Academy.

Please visit the Academy and browse our extensive catalogue in multiple languages. Register once to access over 180 titles.

All courses are available as a global public good for free.

How to access the course

1. Go to the e-learning Academy: elearning.fao.org
2. Register and log-in with your user name and password

©FAO, 2021
CB7690EN/1/12.21

[😊] Registration is fast and easy

FAO elearning Academy: elearning.fao.org