

Introduction to the responsible governance of tenure

© FAO/Daniele Blundo

The course introduces the main concepts and principles of the Voluntary Guidelines on the Responsible Governance of Tenure (VGGT). It aims to help people understand the guidelines and to apply the principles to practical situations in their countries, as well as to raise the general awareness of responsible governance of tenure of land, fisheries and forests.

 4.5 hours

 Available in English, French, Spanish and Arabic

You will learn about

- Basic concepts of tenure rights and responsible governance of tenure
- The voluntary guidelines on the responsible governance of tenure of land, fisheries and forests
- The five principles of responsible governance
- The ten principles of implementation
- Processes and frameworks to improve governance of tenure

Who is the course for?

The curriculum primarily addresses “change agents” - i.e. people who can have a direct impact by introducing changes in how tenure is governed. They include national policy makers and administrators, surveyors, trainers, legal support providers, civil society and non-governmental organizations, advocacy, control and monitoring professionals.

Key partners

This course was developed under the EU-FAO Programme on “Improved Global Governance for Hunger Reduction”, funded by the European Union (EU) and implemented by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO).

This course supports the implementation of the voluntary guidelines on responsible governance of tenure of land, fisheries and forests, in the context of national food security.
