Invitation for candidatures	168 1) At least six months prior to the opening of the conference, the Secretary-General shall invite Member States to submit candidatures.	2. Ten months before the termination of that period, the Council shall inform Contracting States that it will proceed to the appointment of the Secretary General. The communication should also: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> invite attention to the provisions of Articles 54 (h), 58 and 59 of the Convention; set out the qualifications, experience and abilities which candidates are expected to demonstrate; and indicate the date by which the names of candidates for the Secretary General should be in the hands of the President; that date to provide Contracting States three full months for reply. 3. The names of the candidates shall be circulated by the President to all Contracting States as soon as they are received. 4. The Council shall invite candidates, at an appropriate date before the election, to present their views and ideas to a meeting of Representatives, and to answer any questions which may be posed.		1. Candidatures for the post of Director-General shall be received in the office of the Governing Body Chairperson on or before a date to be determined by the Governing Body which shall be at least two months prior to the date of the election. 2. In order to be considered these candidatures must be submitted by a Member State of the Organization or by a member of the Governing Body. [...] 7. Candidatures submitted in accordance with the abovementioned conditions shall be distributed together with curricula vitae and statements, in the official languages in which they are submitted, to the members of the Governing Body and to the Member States not represented on the Governing Body for information, by the Chairperson as soon as practical after the candidature has been received. Only statements received at the same time as the candidatures shall be receivable and ⁷ distributed.		Executive Board Rule 58 – Nomination of Director-General 1. At least six months before the expiry of the term of office of the Director-General or in case of vacancy at any other time, the Executive Board shall, as soon as possible, invite Member States to suggest the names of persons who might be considered for the post of Director-General, requesting them at the same time to provide full biographical details regarding these persons.
Conduct during campaign				8. Unethical practices such as promises, favours, gifts, etc., provided by, or in support of, candidates for the post of Director-General are prohibited. 9. Appropriate measures shall be taken by the Director-General to remind the staff of the Office of the rules and standards of conduct aimed at

Appropriate measures shall also be taken by the Director-General to prohibit the use of ILO resources for the purposes of campaigning for, or supporting, any candidate and to regulate the conduct of ILO staff presenting as candidates for the appointment as Director-General.
Hearings				12. Hearings shall be conducted with the candidates at a private sitting of the Governing Body held prior to the election. The order of appearance in the hearings shall be drawn randomly by the Governing Body Chairperson and candidates shall be informed of the date and approximate time of their hearing at least one week prior to the hearing. Each candidate shall be heard individually and shall be invited to make a presentation to the Governing Body. Following the presentation the candidate shall receive and respond to questions from the Governing Body. The time allocated to candidates for making their presentation and receiving and responding to questions shall be determined by the Officers. Equal time will be allocated for all candidates.
Election procedure	174 7) Elections shall be held by secret ballot. 184 4) Each delegation should indicate the candidate it supports: a) by electronic means; or b) when ballot papers are used to hold the elections, on its ballot paper by means of an "X" in the box against the name of that candidate.		Except as provided otherwise in respect of elections pursuant to Rule 40, all elections shall be held by secret ballot unless the Governing Council decides otherwise in an election where the number of candidates does not exceed the		Rule 52 For the appointment of the Secretary-General, the Council shall consider in private meeting its recommendation to the Assembly and vote upon it by secret ballot.	General Conference Rule 104 After discussion at a private meeting the Executive Board shall submit for approval by the General Conference a nomination for the post of the Director-General of the Organization. It shall submit at the same time a draft contract establishing the terms of appointment, salary, allowances and status of the Director-General.
