

Food and nutrition security analysis

Course: Livelihoods assessment and analysis

This course introduces the concept of livelihoods and components of the livelihoods framework. It presents the existing livelihoods approaches and methods. The course also provides guidance on assessing livelihoods in different food security contexts and selecting and interpreting livelihoods indicators.

2 hours

Available in English, French and Spanish

You will learn about

- Concept of livelihoods
- Components of the livelihoods framework
- Livelihoods assessment approaches
- Key indicators for each aspect of the livelihood framework
- Selecting and interpreting livelihoods indicators

Who is the course for?

The target audience of this course includes: mid-level managers, technical staff, field personnel who are involved in the collection, management, analysis, and reporting of food security information, as well as, planners, policy formulators and programme managers who are involved in monitoring progress in poverty reduction, and meeting food security goals and targets.

Key partners

The course was developed in the context of the EC/FAO "Food Security Information for Action" Programme, funded by the European Union (EU) and implemented by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO).

FAO learning Center

This course is available through the FAO  learning Center.

Please visit the Center and browse our extensive catalogue in multiple languages. Register once to access over 100 titles.

All courses are available as a global public good for free.

How to access the course

1. Go to the e-learning center: www.fao.org/elearning, and select the category "Food and nutrition security analysis"
2. Register and log-in with your user name and password.

© FAO, 2016
15848E/1/06.16

 Registration is fast and easy.

This publication has been produced with the assistance of the European Union. The contents of this publication are the sole responsibility of FAO and can in no way be taken to reflect the views of the European Union.