

Course 3: Gender-Responsive budgeting for agriculture and climate policies

This course aims to support parliamentarians in ensuring that adequate financial resources are allocated to achieve food security and gender equality. It is designed to equip parliamentarians with the knowledge and tools to effectively address the gender dimensions in budgeting and drive positive change as parliamentarians.

 40 minutes

 Available in English

You will learn about

- What are the characteristics and relevance of gender-responsive budgeting.
- The gender dimensions and approaches for building a gender-responsive budgeting.
- Available tips on how to better implement gender-responsive budgeting.
- What roles can Parliamentarians play in the implementation of gender-responsive budgeting.

Digital badge

Who is the course for?

The course is useful to anyone who wishes to learn how to effectively help in designing gender-transformative and gender-responsive policies related to agriculture and climate actions by allocating adequate financial resources for the gender-related work. It provides guidance to parliamentarians, government officials, policymakers and practitioners working in the field of gender equality, food security, nutrition, agriculture development and climate change mitigation.

Key partners

This course was developed by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) together with the International Training Centre of the International Labour Organization (ITCILO), The International Institute for Sustainable Development (IISD), OXFAM International and Women in Law & Development in Africa (WiLDAF).

FAO elearning Academy

This course is available through the FAO elearning Academy.

Please visit the Academy and browse our extensive catalogue in multiple languages. Register once to access hundreds of titles.

All courses are available as a global public good for free.

How to access the course

1. Go to the e-learning Academy: elearning.fao.org
2. Register and log-in with your user name and password

© FAO, 2024
CD0657EN/1/05.24

[😊] Registration is fast and easy

FAO elearning Academy: elearning.fao.org